Re: Amendment to Application of Knology of Tennessee, Inc. for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity to Provide Facilities-Based and Resold Local Exchange Service, Intrastate Interexchange Service, and Access Service Within Tennessee
Docket No. 00-00058

Dear Mr. Waddell:

Knology of Tennessee, Inc. ("Knology" or "Applicant") hereby submits an amendment to its application seeking authority to operate as a reseller and facilities-based provider of switched local exchange service, interexchange service and exchange access service within the state of Tennessee. An original and thirteen (13) copies are provided. This amendment is made in order to add language in the application relating to competition with rural telephone services and telephone cooperatives.

Notice of this filing has been served on interested parties.

Please date-stamp one copy and return it to the undersigned in the postage-paid envelope provided.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, or if you require additional information, please give me a call at 252-2302.

Very truly yours,

Docket No. 00-00058

AMENDMENT TO APPLICATION

KNOLOGY of Tennessee, Inc. (KNOLOGY) respectfully requests to amend its Application for a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity submitted to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority on January 28, 2000. The following provision is hereby added to the Application:

8.        Unless otherwise permitted by federal or state law, KNOLOGY does not plan to offer local exchange telecommunications services in areas served by any incumbent local exchange telephone company with fewer than 100,000 total access lines, except for those that have voluntarily entered into an agreement with a competing telecommunications service provider or that have applied to provide telecommunications services in an area outside its service area existing as of June 6, 1995. KNOLOGY also does not plan to provide such services in any area served by a telephone cooperative unless otherwise permitted by applicable federal or state law. Applicant reserves the right to expand its services into these areas should any rulings of the TRA or any court or administrative agency allow the provision of service in such areas.
